CALIFORNIA.

A lady renewer from the Ophir of Healdsburg, California.

Editors Caucasian—Gentlemen: Enclosed please find post-office order for $2.50, for which you will forward your paper for one year, to the address of Mrs.

A. M. Simpson, from the date at which her former subscription expired.

A. C. Blebson, Agent.

Thankye; and pardon the observation: We can't see why "a-gent" should have "Bled-soe," when the very name of his town might have "Healed" him. But whilst every

MISSISSIPPI.

Brief, pitby, unmistakable, from the fallen realm of Prentiss and Gholson, Meade, Quitman and Jeff.

Davis-now the wallowing-place of Ames, Alcorn and Revels-(echo answers Devils !) -queenly, widows'weeded land of our birthing :

Brock Haven, Mis-Issippi.
Col. P. Donan-Dear Sir: 1 send you post-office order for $1.25. Please continue to send me the "Cancasian." Very respectfully, W. N. SMYLE.

Continued in weil-doing, -you have

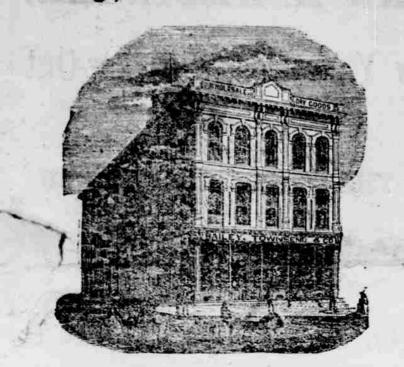

TEXAS.

LADONIA, TEXAS.

reason to smile - ch?

WHOLESALE DRY GOODS.

Bailey, Townsend & Co.

NOS. 101 AND 103, CORNER OF FIFTH AND FELIX STREETS.

ST. JOE, MO.

THE Houses of BAILEY, KAY & CO. and TOWNSEND & WOOD have consolidated under the

Bailey, Townsend & Co. time, the contest lies between the "sore-heads" (Alcornites), the "block-heads"

FOR THE PURPOSE OF CONDUCTING A GENERAL

STAPLE AND FANCY

DRY GOODS

NOTION BUSINESS.

Southeast Corner of Fifth & Felix Streets,

Where they have opened one of the FINEST AND LARGEST STOCKS OF GENERAL MER-

BAILEY, TOWNSEND & CO.

Hotels, Etc.

you will call again. mb22-iv WM. LONG, Proprietor.

PACIFIC HOUSE,

Medical.

DR. PETER TEMPLE,

HOMEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN.

AT HIS OLD STAND,

Cedar Street, near Franklin,

G. W. BARKER, M. D.,

Practical Homeopathic Physician,

HAVING sought Lexington as a permanen location, after twenty years and more experience in the Homeopathic practice, and treatment of acute and chronic diseases, and

Dr. J. W. MENG.

Persons knowing themselves indebted to m will please make prompt payment.

J. F. HASSELL, D. D. S.

Office over Limrick's Bank,

Office their services in the practice of Medi-orie and Surgery, to the public, with the nope that their association together will ten-greatly to promote their knowledge of diseases, a.i to improve their skill in treating them. They will give special attention to Chronic Disorders. They will, in all cases, consider their fees due when the services are rendered, and will collect as soon thereafter as they may deem advisable.

DR. T. S. SMITH.

PHYSICIAN and Surgeon. Office and real dence on Main street, east of the Courthouse Special attention given to surgery. Call promptly attended to, in tewn and country. all

A. BROWN, | W. W. PARKE, | JAS. P. PORTER,

BROWN, PORTER & CO., GENERAL REAL ESTATE, INSURANCE A

A LL business entrusted to their care will re cive prompt attention. Office, corne Reed and Williams street. oc2651

TURNER HALL. On Coiar street, in rear of the Caucasian Office LOUIS GILLEN, Proprietor.

LIME! LIME! ON RAND AT ALL TIMES, AT 750TS PER BARREL MEASURE.

MOBERLY, MO.

Retail Department.

Very Lowest Possible Prices. To which we cordially invite our friends and the public generally.

Attorneys at Law JAMES H. MCHATTON,

WALKER & FIELD, TTORNEYS at Law, Lexington, Missouri, Office in Kramer's building. augo-ly W. T. & T. C. WGGD,

A TTORNEYS AT LAW. 13-T. C. Wood No-tary Public. Office, one door east of Aull Savings Bank. 2d story Lexington, Mo. septlut W. H. ROBERTSON - - - Proprietor. RYLAND & SON,

A TTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW, Lexington, Mo. Office, No. 67 Main at., over the store of Eneberg & Jenninge. Practice in all the courts of this and adjacent countries, and in the Source of the store of the Start of the Sta counties, and in the Supreme Court of the State, or District Court of the United States. Collec-tions made. jub iy

J. S. BLACKWELL, TIORNEY AT LAW AND NOTARY PUB-LIC, Wellington, Missouri, will practice all the courts, and give prompt attention to lections. 122ff

RATHBUN & GRAVES, A TTORNEYS AT LAW, Lexington, Mo. Will practice in all the courts of the Sixth Jacficial Circuit, District and U. S. Courts, Prompt attention given to collections. Office: Main street, over Kriehn's shoe store. deliy?

RICHARD A. COLLINS, TTORNEY AT LAW, Waverly, Mo. Will practice his profession in all the courts of catale of Missouri. Collections made roughout the States.

TILTON DAVIS, A TTORNEY AT LAW, Lexington, Mo. E pecial attention given to the collection of obts, investigation and Perfection o Land Titles, and to Criminal and Real Estate Litigation generally, in Lanyette and adjoining counties. Onlice at Sawyer's old stand, cortion o Land Tial Estate Litigate and adjoining old stand, cortreets, julyllon

ww. H. CHILES.

Will practice in

ALEXANDER & CHILES. A TTORNEYS AT LAW. Will practice in the Courts of Larayette and adjoining counties. Will also attend promptly to the polication of Claims, and to cases arising under the Bankrupt law. Office over the new Banking House of Wm. Morrison & Co. occidy county, and can furnish to any person desiring it a perfect history of his title, showing every defect and encumbrance from the patentee down to the present time. Abstracts furnished at a hori notice on reasonable terms.

Real Estate Agents. SMALLWOOD & TAYLOR, FINANCIAL AND

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

We are agents for the loaning of a large amount of money upon improved real estate.

A. V. SNALL, M. D. J. B. ALEXANDER, M. D. (W. YOUNG, M. D. P. H. CHAMBERS, M. D. CHERT CO. C. P. H. CHAMBERS, M. D. C. W. YOUNG, M. D. W. YOUNG, M. D. P. H. CHAMBERS, M. D. C. W. YOUNG, M. D. P. H. CHAMBERS, M. D. C. W. YOUNG, M. D. P. H. CHAMBERS, M. D. C. W. YOUNG, M. D. P. H. CHAMBERS, M. D. C. W. YOUNG, M. D. P. H. CHAMBERS, M. D. C. W. YOUNG, M. D. P. H. CHAMBERS, M. D. C. W. YO ecurity on five years' time, seption of Medical Office and Surgery, to the public, with the

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE AGENT.
Office northwest corner Main and Laurel streets, Lexington, Mo. Represents the "Old Reliable" Charter Oak Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Connecticut. Attention is called Carpenters and Builders.

BALLARD, MITCHELL, & CO., CARPENTERS & BUILDERS,

HAVING formed a co-partnership, are now prepared to do all carpenpanter's and joiner's work, or other work in their line, at the lowest possible figures. Being each practical carpenters, and employing no assistants, they flatter themselves that they can do any job in their line at lower figures than the same quality of work can be had for in the city. Our motto is "Live and let live." Shop on Main-Croes steet, near Epiacopal church. Give us a call. Jue7y1

MOODY, MICHEL & CO., Wholesale Dealers STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES. ST. LOUIS, MO.

Texington Caucasian.

Largest Local and a General Circulation, extending over all the States and Territories, ing to a Larger Number of Postoff

By DONAN & NESBITT.

P. DONAN. A. S. KIEROLF. EDITORS. C. J. NESBITT, BUSINESS MANAGER

SOVEREIGNTY! - AND A UNI-VERSAL OVERTHROW OF USURP-ERS AND THIEVES!

The St. Louis Dispatch thinks the Mrs. Mary Gallop, of Guilford, Vt .. lately galloped off with dropsy. She had been tapped sixty-three times, and fortyfive barrels of water taken from her.

except the Tumblebug, who got his A rural Radical nlucompoop says "Grant's Presidency is Matchless."

the editor walted till Alf. Jones' jackass Senator Conkling has been made Justice of the Federal Supreme Court. His qualifications are supposed to be his hirsute curls and general contemptibility of character and manner. As the Democracy of Mississippi have wisely refused to present a ticket this ime, the contest lies between the "sore-(Amesites), and the "hard-heads"

Mrs. Swisshelm is for an extermination of the red skins, since age has made her's sallow. If she would go and deliver ectures to them, they would be ashamed of themselves, and leave off scalping the orphaned vankee soldiers.

In paying Grant's way for a third term, the Radicals still insist that Democrats shall "Match Him." This is alleys! Thronging all around us, even in not in our line of business. Luciter will attend to that part of the job in tiful Lexington. Meeting us daily, on all good time, and make it unusually our streets and highways; jostling us, at

One of the editors of the Carmi Times. Mr. Joy, has gone and got married. If Joy makes an average husband, the lady bound feet have never crossed a sanctuahowever, between joy and jaw-y in mat-backs all at one time. The absurdity is by hunting, fishing, skating or boating.

Contrary to straight-out Dimmyeration xpectations, the Democrats of Wisconsin nited with the Liberals and nominated Vm. R. Taylor for Governor. They believe that all Conservatives should work ter the broad folding-door. Have the pecause there were not more of them at the late election.

Honor among thieves. The other day, just a few minutes before the suspension of Henry D. Cooke, by which Andrew Johnson and others lost their all,a tin box, containing valuables to the amount of $20, 000, left the First National Bank, of Washington, and was delivered to the chief robber, Ulysses. It contained his deposits n that institution.

The Radical gain on the vote of Maine in the last election is about 12} per cent. Maine is a frigid, outre region, accurately corresponding with the scriptural "outer darkness." Jacobin bragging over such recruits, is like hell chuckling over Brownlow's or Beastie Butler's arrival-feigned elation at a dead-sure thing-dissembled glee over a stale almanac joke.

al highwaymen to rob the Federal treas-SURGEON DENTIST, share sent to him in a tin box.

"A man who can marry and does not, ought to be damned," is the clincher with which Rev. J. E. Wick, of San Diego, California, closed a recent sermon on marriage. Wick-ed as it may seem, a sease of duty constrains us to hazard the remark, that many a fellow who does marry, would make a good bargain, if he allowed himself damned in preference.

The 200th anniversary of the discovery of the Mississippi river was celebrated at Germania Hall, St. Louis, on the 25th ult. Gov. Tom Reynolds did the orating, grabber, a genteel pickpocket; here an and there was music and dancing. Think alderman, just out of swindling contracts, what a lonely place this was, only 200 and other people-robbing iniquities; here years ago. There were no happy white an up-town merchant prince, his brain 'b'hoya'' with the pale skins and black full of ledgers, extortionate profits, and hearts to punch your nose, or shoot you cent per cent accounts. All heathers, down from your horse for two-bits, as you rode quietly along the highways. How fearfully dull times must have been two

THE HEATHEN AT HOME.

Yes, countless multitudes of them. city alone, who never entered a house of stomach of every less flithy person within worship. Wander through the long, dis- its walls. Heathers and barbarians all. mal, sloppy, garbage-strewn back-streets | Keep a missionary at home. Before venturing the assertion, however, nside of a school-house or a church; who are as deeply, darkly, terribly ignorant, lebased and brutalized as the young savages who, to-day, worship the Cobra-de-Capello, aud eat their own lice, on the sun-scorched shores of Zambesi or Lake Ngami - American heathens - American pagans! Away with collections for Freedmen's Evangelizing Societies, Polynesian Bible Associations, and Senegambia, Madagascar or Terra Del Fuego Missions! Away with them! And let us begin our work at home-enlighten the heathen, reclaim the Arabs of our own streets and our own highly-favored, beloved and beauevery turn, in all our lanes and byways. Scores of young immortals, perishing fellow-beings, upon whose ears Christ's gospel never fell; whose erring, deaththrough the week, hanging around doggery or gambling-hell doors; their only business, what Satan always finds for wil-Charleston (W. Va.) Courier for $25,000 ling hands to do; their only language, obdamages for libel. The General had bet- scenity and profanity. See them on the a cravat. ter save costs by compromising on as holy Sabbath morning, dodging off to the many cents. The idea of an average coun- woods or river, to desecrate the sacred try editor planking down $25,000 in green- hours of the one hallowed day in seven,

Heathens, pagans, sitting in darkness and the shadow of death. But these hapless ones are not all our gropers in the gloom of heathenism. Go o any of our large city churches. Entogether, and don't blame and curse the dandified usher show you to a pew, Liberals, as some patriots in Missouri do, among modern Zion's elitest children. Note the softly tinted light which falls on costumes gorgeous and vulgar enough for a fancy dress ball. See the coquetting; the wanton tossing of brainless heads; the alluring motions of jeweled fans; the whispering of indelicate compliments, and ill-natured criticisms : the stroking of scented and dyed mustaches: and the nibbling of licentious cane-heads. Think you they are there o worship an infinitely pure and holy Jehovah, a meek and lowly Savior? Nay, Mrs. Aurora Borealis Phelps has bought verily. God is not in all their thoughts. sixty acres of land at Woburn, Nastychu- They're there because the opera-houses. setts, for the establishment of a colony theatres and club-rooms are closed; because its fashionable, and an agreeable change from the revelries and dissipations cincts. Nevertheless, if she would have of other days. Humility-they're vain the colony increase and multiply as it and scornful. Faith-they believe only should, it would be well to hang up some in Mammon. Love-they care only for themselves and their pleasures. Adoration-they bow only at the shrine of luxury and lust. They're heathens. Keep your missionaries at home. See that blazing feminine oriflamme commingled rainbows, ostrich teathers and dromedariacal sinuosity. Behold he kneel with her false calves; bow her painted face, upon her enameled hands; turn to the skies, her stunning array of false hair; and pretend to supplicate heaven to As we suggested two weeks ago, the Jay put a new heart in her bosom of saw-dust Cooke smash-up, was a contrivance of loy - cotton batting, and patent wire palpita tors. She's thinking only of herself, and ury. The several clues to the fact are ex- the display she's making. She'd fee posed by the fact that Henry Clews & Co. herself grossly insulted, if you should get $200,000 of the people's money, the hint at the possibility of her being a government being depositor to that "miserable sinner," except in the musiamount. Grant will probably get his cal responses of her gilt-clasped prayerbook. She's a heathen, as benighted and hopeless, as ever burnt incense to the devil, on the Ganges' shores. Oh, for a missionary able to send one idea of heaven, hell, death, eterpity and a Sa vior's love, through her ponderous And see, on every hand, the flashily dressed and perfumed squirts and snobs. brainless, heartless, soulless, fresh fron the debauches of Saturday night, here fo no purpose but to ogle the "ge-yurls" through their pink-ribbon-suspended eyeglasses; here a pompous broker-office goldsionary to arouse, or Jesus' blood to save! But why tarry in our larger cities? Go, as we do many a Sunday, to one of the in a most benevolent manner. They are woman in the house. None but a baramen corners. Each one squirt, squirt, squirting, nastier than a forty-polecat-A power syringe in perpetual motion. De uarter of a million children in New York filing the house of God, and sickening the

LEXINGTON, LAFAYETTE COUNTY, Mo., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1873.

and alleys of our great cities, and behold | And oh, last, most hideous, horrible the swarms of filthy, ragged little caricatures on humanity — miserable little wretches—scarce three removes above the brated. All the groans and bloody sweat pigs and puppies, their companions. Can of Gethsemane, all the cruel mockeries of it be possible that God made them? If so, Pilate's judgment-ball, and all the fearful what for ? Have they, within those tatter- agonies of Calvary, cluster and crystallize hung carcases, souls, deathless souls, around that broken bread and flowing that are destined to glow with radiance di- wine. The wondrously sad and tender vine in heaven, or dying, never die in hell forever? Can it, can it be? Oh, the emptiness of all our boasted enlightening and christianizing agencies! The hollow scourging; the dull thud of the hammer, mockery of our foreign gospel-spreading and the awful tearing of the nails into the efforts! Ship-loads of red flannel shirts, quivering flesh; the lamentations of the ive young cannibals on the banks of the Niger or Nyanza. Gushes of sympathy and cargoes of testaments, for the benighted Hindoos and Siamese. Fat, tender, juicy missionaries, in prime order for barbecuing, for the Caribs, Feejees and New Zealanders. Barrels of crocodile tears, and bounteous shipments of hymn-books. and tracts on predestination, for the sport- faithful women; the gentle petition, Zealanders. Barrels of crocodile tears, and bounteous shipments of hymn-books. Parley's geographies, school-marms and North Methodist whangdoedlers, for the beastial, stench-sweating, black barbarians of Misslashpi and the Carolinas. All this long-range solicitude for perishing humanity. And yet, here and there and everywhere, at our own doors, amid all the blaze of gospel light, in hearing of the bells of a thousand glittering spires, wallowing in the recking slums of all our great Babels, are millions of wretched little beings of our own race, our own flesh and blood, native-born Americans. flesh and blood, native-born Americans, not strange that even the long-suffering who never heard of a heaven, a hell, a God and forbearance of God, are not exhaustor a Devil, except in biasphemies. Mil- ed? Is it not a miracle of mercy, that lions of pitiable little creatures, with skins such shocking profaners, are not smitten beneath their clots of flith, as white as dead in their seats, by the red bolts of ours or yours, madam, who never saw the heaven's fiercest wrath? Missionaries, inside of a school-house or a church; who more missionaries, for our heathen at

> DIXIE DOTS. Col. Tucker, of Raleigh, brought a

Merchants of Macon, Ga., make the run from New York city, over the Carolina route, in forty-seven hours.

fell from his horse, and was injured. Two thousand five hundred dollars were realized at one amateur performance in the Varieties Theater, New Orleans, for the Fred Douglass says the Nashville niggers disgraced him. While he spoke to them, will doubtless be joyful, in time, it she is ry's threshold; into whose dark, rayle is they snickered in the front pews and play-benefit of suffering Shreveport.

her squab with a beautiful, variegated fairest of the fair ;-The other, old, in double barrsled-ly fervent style to the vilest thieves in all our half the pen-wiper, and was thunderstruck at church the next Sunday to find it used as ugly, and weary, haggard, care-

Mrs. Ellzabeth Dennington, 109 years old, died recently at Oconee, Ga. Accor-been 200 years of age-quite an old gal. reluctantly suspended cash payments for and pure religion. In the spirit, thirty days, as a precaution. Our Lex-All sound. No suspension. No delay.

letected Radical official pickpocket and in which Caldwell ought to bear off selon, has fled the state, leaving many a blue ribbon, made of black bomcomfortless pecuniary mourners behind. Look out for a new ministerial appointment at Washington.

Savanuah has a dry-goods clerk, who ought to be a Radical editor. He has been horse-whipped by seven different women; and still goes on whistling 'Capt. Jinks of the horse marines,' as if nothing had happened.

An old colored man at Fernandina, Flu. who has been smoking and chewing for ixty years, lately quit its use suddenly. He brushed the ashes from a pipe-full into a can of blasting powder. Morai-Boys don't use tobacco; it injures health.

The Attorney-General of Mississippi lecides that, under the new Constitution, here can be no general election till November, 1874. This is a hard blow on lidate for Vice-President on the Douglas outcher-knives, bottled snakes and cavenne pepper, is not more interesting than starting a daily in a town that does't need

Chief Justice Taney, aithough possessing a delicate, pervous, excitable organization.-which is believed to be peculiarly usceptible to injury from the use of tobaco, -used it constantly during all his life. He commenced smoking when a child, and all but died with a cigar lu his mouth. Down with tobacco-away with the nasty

PROPHECY VERIFIED.

The following is an extract from a list of ten prophetic propositions, made and published by a spiritualist, last month a year ago. They appeared first in the "Modern Thinkthe head in these two paragraphs :

OUR LETTERS.

FROM THE EAST AND FROM THE WEST, FROM THE NORTH AND FROM THE SOUTH, THE CRY IS STILL THEY COME.

A Few out of Myriads.

NORTH CAROLINA. Here, a noble son of the heroic Tar-Heel Land, whom the foul minions of Radicalism, Niggerism, sent a copy of it to one of the fa- Rights, White Supremacy and Rehell-benighted reign of the Holden and Lowery gangs:

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA, Sept. 17.

know of no language that speaks more archy Versus Republicanism." And around the hemisphere-disenthralling to the point than that of the immortal Gaston, when in his beautiful stanzas, "The Old North State Forever," he says: "Plain and artiess her sons, but whose doors open faster At the knock of the stranger, or the tale of disaster? How like to the rudeness of their dear native

And as you are in the habit of visiting your cousin in Virginia, it may be (if you have as many relatives as U. S. G.) you might find your cousin here at our fair, and if you could not find yours, you would be pretty apt to find somebody else's, which would be about the same; and I would do our fair ones injustice if I did not tell you what Gaston save of them. been sent to the Shreveport sufferers from not tell you what Gaston says of them, ina route, in forty-seven hours.

Gen. P. G. T. Beauregard lately paid a pipiled them,
How they kindle and fame! Oh, none know his horse, and was injured.

Now if you can resist all this, and not ome, you must be a hard case.
Your friend, R. W. B.

Invitation most captivating. Inducements irresistible. Oh, that we were two fellows- ; One, young, handsome, rich, graceful and glib-A Franklin (La.) sweetheart presented Fair, to meet and worship your ed hopes and interests. Amen, amen, When you remember that 60,000 of with an extra "o:" worn, and poor as Job's unfortunate Another raid by U. S. troops was made gobbler that had to borrow a tailor vengeance, declaring these insults to on his bones, - Him we'd keep at Keep time to the music : home, as we shall have to do, to tramp, tramp, tramp around the ding to our mathematics, if she had lived perpetual tread-mill of editorial ninety-one years more, she would have drudgery, and furnish a waiting The fifteen banks of New Orleans have polite literature, exalted morality over the impossibility of our at-Ex-Auditor Wickliffe of Louisiana, a tending your State Donkey-Show,bazine, tied to the fly-flipper tips of his 19-inch ears.

INDIANA.

This panic will be precipitated, in all fonger to submit to the designation of his neighbors, by such unselfightful anticipation of a juicy dinner of 'long pig,'' at no distant day. Owing to the moral Source of the Morth-of the Morth-of the moral Source of the Morth-of the Morth-of the Morth-of the moral Source of the Morth-of the Mor battery, they have denied themselves much gastric comfort, and are compelled to satisfy their appetites on tough native deacons and impecunious pew-holders, cascons and impecunious pew-holders, when there western enterprises, it will spread finally awaiting better times, when there will be greater freedom of conscience, and more of it.

See the tobacco-chewers, old elders and and less digestive effort necessary.

and on the 'street' will prove to be common cheats. While the panic will common cheats. While the panic will common cheats. While the panic will comes from long-faced, sniveling the very necessaries of file to save your homes from long-faced, sniveling of our churches, every Sunday, are full of our churches, battles for the People, for Freedom, Down with the bondholding pi- the children; and a promoter of God and the Right! Such a paper rates! Down with buccaneoring the indispensable dromedariacal is an anomaly- a lusus pature-a rings, and official thieves! Down humpiness of rearal mystery among six-legged rooster and triple-headed with the people's plunderers and op- the women. calf- in this age of limber-backed pressors! Up with the banner of shams, barterable paytriotism, and real reform! Down with Democratsin-winking piety. Gen. Wade ic, as well as Radical, knaves and Hampton told us some time ago, knavery! Down with the Woodsons that in passing through Memphis, as well as Fletchers, with the salaryhe had met Ex-President Jefferson steal Comingoes as well as Butlers Davis who, in speaking of the and jack-Dawes! The Caucasian's Caucasian, said be had recently motto, for years, has been : "States an audience.

MISSOURI. A jolly response to a pasteboard-

al postal dun, from a late gallant of-With rich ore in their bosoms, and life in their ficer in the hosts of freedom and right -a chivalrous follower of the Starry NORBORNE, Mo., SEPT. 23.

MESSIS DONAN & NESBITT-Gentlemen: I received a "card of invitation" from your I received a "card of invitation" from your Panjandrum to send 65 cents in stamps to date. I herewith enclose you one dollar, which, I trust, will answer your purpose better. Owing to the "pressure in the money market," and the unprecedented panic among our Eastern friends (?), I feel into to part with even this small representative of legal tender, fearing the "conteminating disease" may reach us in the Far West, and force us to yield to its blighting influence. However, oblige me by giving me credit for this small monety, and if your efforts in the cause of freedom, high morality and true religion, should meet with their deserts, I trust 10,000 more may be added to your list of readers and friends. Yours truly, J.A.P. Verily a "Royal I A P" Noble Verily a "Royal J. A. P." Noble son of the celestial isle, we trust the larly mailed by machinery which, that shall ever reach your elevat(or)- humanity, never fails to do its duty.

your 10,000 trust. A ringing bugle-blast from a Laover the Rio Grande into Mexico on the feather from a buzzard's pinion to fayette farmer. Grangers, prepare paw over your paper between here and Atlanta, you have reason to 27th uit., and the Mexican papers, call keep the green flies from roosting to mount! Unfurl the standard! wonder that it ever reaches you. Hand a nice little bunch of our EDITORS CAUCASIAN: I attended a rereshest regards to Gen. Gordon. WYOMING TERRITORY. was the first blooming of their organization's rose. The basket dinner was one of From the blissful realms of sheworld its rations of sound politics, finest and most bountiful I ever saw urors and he-wet-nurses,-of feminine politicians, lawyers and judges vited to partake without money or price. Everything was free and easy, and in perand masculine cooks, cow-milkers thou Best of rosin-chawers, we shed brimming barrels of tender tears The Grand Master of the state, Thomas I and dish washers,-Land where the gentle savage amuses himself, be-Allen, spoke first. His speech was a very tween drunks and drawing of govlengthy one, urging the claims of the til lers of the soil. Next, our countyman M. V. L. McClelland. Then Norman J ernment blankets and rifles, in playing h-airwork with venturesome clearly that the farmers have the power to blue-jacketed minions of Doodledom: protect themselves and the country, if united. They dwelt on the great necessity FORT BRIDGER, WYOMING TERRITORY. of organization in order to be united, and maintained that the organization must be EDITOR CAUCASIAN - Dear Sir: iress a copy of your paper? I am sir, A young ex-Lexingtonian, who lowers of every other industry are fully We've had the kindness, and you has been sowing precious seed on Sodomitic ground—sprinkling the vitriol of newspaperial truth, in a have the paper. den of Radical serpents—stirring up the unclean beasts of adulterous

Hossierden with the keep pointed admit all that was said to be true. Bu none of the speakers on that occasion pointed out to us any method by which the farmers of the country can lighten Hoosierdom, with the keen-pointed pole of right and justice, purification and reform. Hear how they MESSES DONAL & NESBITT—Gendemen: the farmers of the country can lighten Your notification came to hand a few their burdens, or rise from their deplorathe Ames faction, and secures the days-ince. My neglect was who ly unintentional, for I was under the impression that the subscription was paid at the plunder.

Tour notification came to hand a few bie condition. Bowed down to the earth of the farmers now are with faxation, their lands all bound for railroad bonds, without a hope of ever getting out,—why niggers : Col. Donau, your articles in the last | we could arise and be once more free farmdidate for vice-President on the Douglas issue created quite a breeze among a circle of Indiana Rads., to whom I showed the are slaves to the boudholder and railroad Federal Daily at Washington. Failing paper. A liberal distribution of such mild monopolies; and to all appearance will be down stairs with an armful of scythes, political literature in this section of the send the Caucasian as long as the enclosed bill will pay for it. And oblige, Yours respectfully, J. M. B. political literature in this section of the country, would necessitate an abolition of the third commandment, or else burden many Radical readers with a debt of profanity, from which a life-long penitence would scarcely absolve them. They dislike the brilliant colors you impart to the portraitures of their party leaders, and would prefer a milder representation of the grievous omissions and still more grievous commissions of the "Great Grant Imperial Radical Party." After the 30th of Sept., please send my paper to Ann Arbor, Mich., for I will return there the 1st of October. The Caucasian is looked upon as a newspaperial wonder in this part of the country and in Ann Arbor, where I distributed them largely last winter. The graded, we are now bankrupt. We cannow the country and in Ann Arbor, where I distributed them largely last winter. The graded, we are now bankrupt. We cannow the country and in Ann Arbor, where I distributed them largely last winter. The sooner we do it, the better for all classes. So, grangers, it you to the first of the first of the country and in Ann Arbor, where I distributed them largely last winter. The land of the country and in Ann Arbor, where I distributed them largely last land of the country and in Ann Arbor, where I distributed them largely last land of the country and in Ann Arbor, where I distributed them largely last land of the country and in Ann Arbor, where I distributed them largely last land of the country and in Ann Arbor, where I distributed them largely last winter. The land of the country and in Ann Arbor, where I distributed them largely last winter. The land of the country and in Ann Arbor, where I distributed them largely last winter. The land of the country and in Ann Arbor, where I distributed them largely last winter. The land of the country and in Ann Arbor, where I distributed them largely last winter. The land of the country and in Ann Arbor, where I distributed them largely last winter. The land of the country and in Ann Arbor, where I distributed them largely last winter. The land of the country and in Ann Arbor, where I distributed them largely last winter and the country and prevailing opinion is, that its leading edi-tor should be snugly and safely domiciled in free; and to get free, we must repudiate a penitentiary, whose walls would circum-scribe the influence of his "bitter political let us act as a burnt child, dreading the animosities.'' Will expect a lively paper fire that has scorched our body and para-for some time. I gave the last copy to a lyzed our energies. My chief objection to er." It would seem that the crazy fellow who thinks he sees wonders in ether, has really hit the nail on wherever it lights. It is a wonder, a marvel, in these days of truckling, prosperity. The God of nature has arranged it that they should be the chief ru-I predict that within the coming two time serving, paid treachery and lers of his foot-stool. So, wake up brother hundred years ago!

The jolly native christians in the Marquesas Islands are admirers of the paleskinned missionaries who labor among them. They yie with each other in doing honor to both their Protestant and Catholic ministers, and run their chorches in a most benevolent manner. They are land, our Maryland," which "breath-

Diabolism, expelled from the Sec- moas political clubs of London; pudiation-The Only Hope of Liberretaryship of State, during the and a prompt letter from one of ty!" We've ever been ahead of the the roble members, assured him it times. When we proclaimed no had been read to the whole body, Democratic state convention or and unanimously pronounced the nominations, a split in the Radical most smazing curiosity of modern party, and Missouri's enfranchise drop is richness to us, bleed on, good. literature-a nonpareil-a ne-plus- ment, in 1870; -every asinine yelper brother bled-so. ultra-or words to that effect. The and scribbler in our broad common-English, French and German papers | wealth, jeered us as a madman. Six copy from us and comment on us, months afterward, it was the jayfulas though we were a mammoth ly accepted policy of a unanimous

A duet of patriots from the Lone -in short-we have the world for standard of Total Repudiation of Star Republic, Province, Pashawlic, every fraud, outrage and violenceor What-d'ye-call-it now : contracted national, state, county and municipal debt, which has been EDITORS CAUCASIAN - Gents: Please find enclosed some Lincoln scads, the worth of which please send in your elegant literature, to J. E. Polk and J. P. McCool, Ladonia, Fannia Co., Texas; and oblige, Yours, J. P. M. piled on unwilling, galled, aching freemen's backs, during the last twelve-years' reign of hell, havoc

ATLANTA, GRORGIA.

GEORGIA.

your paper so well, that I am always sadly disappointed when it fails to come to hand. Do me the kinduess, to see if it is sent regularly to my address. Box 525, Atlanta, Georgia, and I shall feel grateful to you. Yours, Mrs. E. S. M.

Your paper, dear madam, is regu-

SOUTH CAROLINA.

CHESTNUT GROVE, SOUTH CAROLINA.

EDITOR CAUCASIAN-Dear Sir: Piens

Sent.

ALABAMA.

Here a good friend whose inquiries have failed to reach us, or amid ten thousand others been overlooked.

EDITOR CAUCASIAN-Dear Sir: Some

two weeks ago, I sent you a post-office money-order for $7 50 for subscription to your paper, for Goff, Young and Wamble, and asked to have mine which had been sent to Patona, Ala., changed requested you to write me, sending date of expiration, so that I could renew. Not having received any paper or other information on the subject, I write again

MARYLAND. A seeker for truth, from "Mary-

SELMA, ALABAMA.

fails to come :

and nightmare! Repudiation forever! "Elegant" etc., promptly started. Do so some more. A lady friend, from the glorious Prompt returns from a sample Empire State of the South, who is sent to the Grand Southwestern

"sadly disappointed" when her favor- Empire : ite installment of sabbatic literature PIN-OAK, TEXAS. COL. P DONAN—Dear Sir: Enclosed find $1 25, for which please forward one copy of the Caucasian to my address for the period of six months.

Respectfully, H. C. Moors. EDITORS CAUCASIAN: Will you be so kind as to look after my paper, as I have not received a copy for a month. I like

We "H" (ope) to C Moore of your neighbors following your excellent example.

TENNESSEE.

Short, plain and pointed, from a Yellow-John-afflicted city in the ill is neither dreamt-of Nor-born, far better than our boastful christian Volunteer State-home of one of MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE. the vilest thieves in all our half the globe are in office, and think hew many of these roguish ragamuffins will send me your paper as per terms of subscription; and oblige J. R. B. Obliged.

> MONTANA. From the cloud-punching peaks and emerald vales of sun-set: ERENCHTOWN, MONTANA TERRITORY. $1 25. Send me for same the Weekly Caucasian. Address J. A. B.

Be "J. A. B"-bers, its done. NEBRASKA.

From George-Francis-Train-ville : OMAHA, NEBRASKA. Editors Caucasian—Dear Sirs: En-osed find a small amount of flithy lucre, for which you will please send me you paper, and much oblige Yours traiy,

O. K. ADDRESS OF THE WHITE MEN OF LOUISIANA.

One More Appeal for Justice.

The Committee of Seventy held an extraordinary meeting to New From the once proud Palmetto Orleans, on the 24th ult., and re-State, whose every palm now fans solved to call a mass convention or he flames of pandemonium ;-Tue he leading minds of that Libertydauntless little game-cock, of the dethroned sovereignty for the 24th of South, now metamorphosed into a November, to take into considera-Congo dominica or a Guinea-towl; non a last appeal to the reason and -The glorious cradle of secession, patriotism of the country and its in which tattered strumpet Colum- rotten Congress, for a restoration of bia now rocks a shricking young the will of the people over bayonetcannibal nigger;-The hell of white planted usurpation, fraud and scounmen, the paradise of thieves and drelism. I ecommittee also issued pointed a sensible address, from which w make this extract. The persistence of the white freemen of > late their example. If we must die, let us die game : The time is fast approaching when the ause of the people of this state will again be presented to Congress for final adjustnent and settlement, and your committee, moved by profound convictions looking to the well-being of the entire people of this commonwealth, have concluded that a convention of the people of the state would be the most acceptable medium for an ap-propriate presentation to the Congress of nation, of the alarming and lented outrages committed agalast the rights and liberties of the people of this ate, by which a government never

Louisiana in struggling for their rights, encourages us in the hope that the people of other states will emu-

Time, dear Mc., expired about truest and ablest men, and let us make one united and combined effort to rescue our state from the grasp of the spoliator is always stamped on the margin or and u-urpers.

Let us make at least one last grand effort to arouse the Congress of the Union, and the people thereor, to a full appreciation of the means and methods, employed under Federal auspices, that throttled the hat every subscriber may know each week, just when his advance funds run out. Sorry your letters State Government of Louisiana. We owe this much to ourselves, and t were not more promptly attended to.

We desire to present the question, fairly and squarely, to the Congress and to all the people of this American Union, whether or not it is permissible under our form of government, for an inferior United pagans almost beyond the power of mis-